

For the first time, Flamingo headliner Donny Osmond has candidly revealed that it was difficult for his wife, Debbie, to watch him in the arms of "another woman" on Dancing With the Stars with his partner, dancing pro Kym Johnson. "There is no concern on her part nor need there be, but to see me dancing romantically in the arms of another woman is just difficult for her, especially when Kym is wearing those flimsy pieces of fabric that looks like there's nothing there. She's dealing with it, and I tell her when I'm out there it's just the same as if I was acting a role."

Everywhere you turned earlier this month, Sean "Diddy" Combs was in the spotlight. And everywhere the music mogul, rap artist, record producer, screen actor and fashion designer went, he was busy promoting his Ciroc vodka. In fact, he's so in love with Vegas at the moment that he'll be back for New Year's Eve, hosting a TV special and helping open the Hard Rock Hotel's Vanity nightclub.

Comedian Chelsea Handler thrilled fans with her show at The Colosseum in Caesars Palace with pint-size sidekick Chuy—and she didn't touch a drop of vodka during the performance! Handler's boyfriend, former ABC boss and now Comcast chief Ted Harbert headed up her group while visiting The Venetian. Along with singer Natasha Bedingfield and actress Mary McCormack, Handler and Chuy went on a Grand Canal Shoppes retail spree to kick off the weekend. Then E!'s late-night talk show host took the group to Tao's Asian-themed restaurant in The Venetian.

They are already calling it the "capital of the new world," a mind-blowing collection of spectacular hotels and residences, sensational spas, astonishing dining and extraordinary shopping, all brought to life by eight world-renowned architects. This is CityCenter and as the largest private complex ever built in America, it opens on the Strip this week. One of the first visitors will probably be President Barack Obama, who has been invited by CityCenter officials through Nevada members of Congress. They want Obama to see the largest jobs creation and the largest green effort ever undertaken anywhere in America.

Congratulations and happy eighth anniversary wishes to the Palms resort and owner George Maloof. So hard to believe all that time has raced by since Paris Hilton was guest of honor to cut the red ribbon in November 2001. She wore a dress made from $100 chips that made for global headlines and photos. Congrats and happy eighth to my pal Michael Boychuck for his celebrity-filled AMP Salon at the Palms, too.

It's now official that music superstar Christina Aguilera will host New Year's Eve at Tao in The Venetian.

Tickets are on sale for the Bon Jovi concert stop at MGM Grand Garden Arena on Saturday, March 6. Jon Bon Jovi, Richie Sambora, David Bryan and Tico Torres released their new album The Circle to kick off a two-year global tour.

Crowds on the Strip sidewalk brought traffic to a near-stop earlier this month as they tried for a glimpse of movie stars Will Ferrell and Mark Wahlberg filming scenes of their movie, The Other Guys, the story of a dysfunctional New York City detective duo.

When impressionist Frank Caliendo celebrated his grand opening of a new multiyear run at the Monte Carlo, it was a stroke of genius to recruit rival ventriloquist/impressionist Terry Fator, and fellow comics Carrot Top and Louie Anderson to interrupt his show with their own comedy. Angelica Bridges (pictured below with Caliendo), from Fantasy at the Luxor, brought along her delicious dancers along, too.

Cabo Wabo Gets the Hagar Approval

The Red Rocker himself, Sammy Hagar, paid a weekend visit to his new Cabo Wabo Cantina at Miracle Mile Shops at Planet Hollywood Resort. Hagar got up on top of the bar to toast the energetic crowd with his signature Waborita margarita. He told me he will be here to celebrate its grand opening on Dec. 4.
